Vice President and Mrs. Marshall Preside at Brilliant Reception in Ball Room at Willard; President and Bride Occupy Box at National

News of Society at the Capital

The brilliant event of last evening was the reception given by the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall in the ballroom of the Willard. This was the second of a series of two evening receptions which have distinguished the social program of the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall and have been among the most brilliant events of an undoubtedly brilliant sea-

The entire ballroom suite was thrown open for the occasion and was charmingly decorated with quantities of spring flowers against a background of fir trees, palms, and Southern smilax, with myriad yellow lanterns cunningly tucked away in the forest of green. in the forest of green.

The Marine Band played for the danc-ing in both balirooms, and an elaborate seated supper was served at small tables adorned with joncuils and other spring flowers. The same blossoms decorated the huge center table, which was fur-ther ornamented with yellow-capped candles.

The Vice President and Mrs. Marshall received their guests at the entrance to the large ballroom, where American Beauty roses were arranged in tall vases, and a screen of palms formed a back-ground, for the receiving party. Judge and Mrs. A. A. Adams and Mrs. W. A. Jamison, of New York, who are visiting the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall, assisted them in welcoming their guests. BURNING ECZEMA

For Twelve Years. Kept Spreading. Skin Was Red and Inflamed. Often Could Not Sleep.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

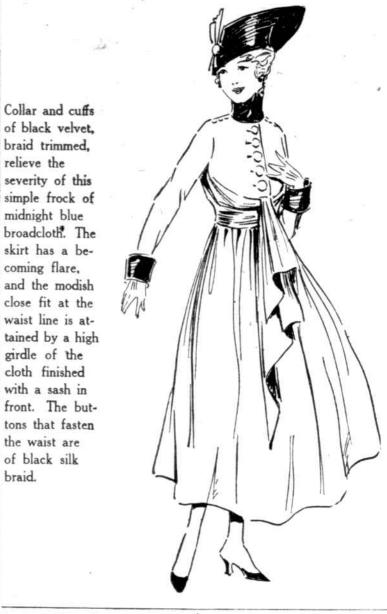

"My eczema came on me with an itching that was terrible. It came on one of my limbs in small pimples resembling ringworm and it kept spreading until it reached my body. The skin was red and inflamed and the itching and burning were so intense that irritation was caused by scratching. Often I could not sleep and my clothing aggravated the eruption very much.

"It went on this way for twelve years. I saw Cuticura Soap and Ointment advertised and I procured some and soon saw the ecsema was drying up. I was healed." (Signed) Mrs. Nan White, Chiply, Ga.,

Suppose you win the $200 cash prize for doing the best work from February 28 to March 11, inclusive, and on March 24 you find yourself to have the winning vote for the big Mitchell touring car!

Do you realize that you will have carned exactly $375 per week during the remaining weeks of the contest?

Should it so happen that the candidate winning the $100 cash prize also wins the $300 Saxon, he will have earned approximately $225 a week during the remaining weeks of the contest.

of course, it may happen that a candidate wins one of the cash prizes and then in the end wins one of the lesser prizes, but it is probable that the one who do the best work while the double vote schedule is in force will be the big gest winners at the final.

vote schedule is in force will be the biggest winners at the final.

Seventy-five Changes.

The voting list shows increased activity all along the Jine, which indicates that most of the candidates will be alive to the importance of the banner period offer. Those who are at present well up in the lead appreciate the fact that constant plugging for subscriptions while they count double is the surest way to retain their hold on a high place. Those who are lower in the list likewise understand that it is "now or never" with them.

There are seventy-five changes in the standings of the candidates in all eleven districts today, which goes to show much interest was taken during the period just closed.

William A. Kearney is leading all eleven districts with 68,980 votes to his credit. Gracia L. Koppen is second with 68,795, and H. J. Morgan third with 68,687.
